The universal query in this vicinity is "Where's Reubent" To relieve the anxiety of a suffering neighborhood, we beg leave to state, that when last seen, he was scatted on the head of a nail-keg, full of "tacks-es," profoundly absorbed in a deep and abstruse mathematical calculation as to the possibility of setting his farm up on edge, so as to earn a living on one side, and make the other pay his taxes. We hope the problem may be satisfactorily solved, as there will then be room to anticipate that the world will not much longer be deprived of the liliuminating influence of his genius.

H. J. E. AHRENS,

Owing To the health of my family and wishing to change my business, I now offer for sale the splendid farm upon, which I reside. It is situated 25 miles south of Dover, in the very heart of Lafayette county, and contains 340 acres, 230 under good fence and in cultivation, balance in timber adjoining upon 3 sides. The improvements consists of a dwelling house, ten rooms and two halls, all necessary outhouses, a large new frame barn, $ x 56 feet, and a large hemphouse. Also two tenent houses, one brick and one hewed log. There are on the place, 400 typic trees, 150 in full bearing, together with peaches, pears and other fruits in abundance, and an abundance of never-falling stock water. The land is not surpassed in quality by any farm in the county, and taken altogether is considered one of the very best farms in the State, and is situated in a pleasant neighborhood and convenient to the churches, schools, &c. It will be sold together or will be divided, if the improvements are wanted with less land. Terms easy. Apply to the undersigned, upon the premise.
